The Cupcake Girls... With Their Own TV Show
March 31, 2010

These 2 entrepreneurial women have made their delicious Cupcakes a household name in the Vancouver Lower Mainland. And now they have their very own show on the W Network. And I'm pretty excited about it! I've been big fans of theirs since their business first opened in 2002. The show follows them through their daily going-ons, AA meetings, fertility clinics, growing the business, and so on.

Can't wait for The Cupcakes Girls to premier, check out more information here:
